

Special Events

AT THE SCIENCE MUSEUM OF VIRGINIA

© STEVEN AND LILY PHOTOGRAPHY

Make memories that will last a lifetime at the Science Museum of Virginia

At the Science Museum of Virginia, our on-site event planners work with you to ensure every detail is covered, whether you're looking for dramatic elegance or casual fun.

Housed in a former train station designed by renowned architect John Russell Pope, the Museum has a rich history and dynamic spaces that will make your event unforgettable.

Learn more about hosting a special event at the Museum by contacting our experienced event planners at 804.864.1466 or speialevents@smv.org.

© REBECCA D'ANGELO

© DAVID ABEL PHOTOGRAPHY

© SEAN DEWITT PHOTOGRAPHY

© DAVID ABEL PHOTOGRAPHY

© SEAN DEWITT PHOTOGRAPHY

Dewey Gottwald Center

Host your event in the Dewey Gottwald Center, the newest addition to the Museum's campus. Equipped with contemporary finishes and a dynamic floor plan, the sleek steel and glass structure is a stunning location to host your retreat, conference, wedding or lecture. Guests make a grand entrance into the modern building, using a private entry with direct access to conveniently located parking.

The Rotunda

The Rotunda features a magnificent five-story dome unlike any other in Virginia. Ideal for a cocktail party, wedding reception or corporate event, your guests will be dazzled by the grandeur of the architecture and history.

© STEVEN AND LILY PHOTOGRAPHY

Lerner Pavilion

Add flair to your event by hosting your guests in a scenic outdoor setting among the historic train canopies at Broad Street Station. Use the historic train ramps to make your grand entrance.

© STEVEN AND LILY PHOTOGRAPHY

© MICHAEL WALSH PHOTOGRAPHY

Thalhimer Pavilion

This tented area is a wonderful place for your next company party, wedding reception or high school prom.

Gather under the historic train canopies and celebrate the rich history of the Museum.

RF&P FORUM

Celebrate the history of Broad Street Station in the Richmond, Fredericksburg and Potomac Forum. Originally Broad Street Station's dining room, the RF&P Forum is a terrific place for a business meeting, cocktail party or lunch meeting.

DISCOVERY ROOM

Host a lecture, a class or a staff meeting in this space where guests will be surrounded by a geological overview of Virginia.

MS. BARABARA THALHIMER THEATER

This traditional presentation facility is available for multimedia programs, screen presentations and speakers.

THE DOME

The Dome creates the ultimate immersive experience underneath Virginia's largest movie screen. Seating 250 guests, this full dome theater is the perfect location for a private movie screening, awards ceremony or presentation space for your event.

2500 West Broad Street Richmond, Virginia 23220 smv.org

FRONT AND BACK COVER: © AMANDA MAGLIONE PHOTOGRAPHY

